

Kenji Kaneko

1951: Born in Gunma Prefecture in Japan

1977: Graduated Tokyo university of agricultural and technology. MA

Joined Nihon-pharmaceutical company that is a subsidiary company of Takeda

Started research career

1978-2011

Researcher of National Institute of Cancer center

Researcher of Tokyo university of Pharmaceutical Div

Researcher of central research institute of Takeda pharmaceutical

Director of research Lab

Head of research Div

Executive, Board member

Permanent Director of Japanese Blood program association(2005~2011)

Member of Bio strategic meeting of Chiba prefecture(1st)

Executive, Managing Director

Head of research Div

Educated Nomura management school

Executive, Senior Managing Director

Head of research Div

Educated Harvard Business School(short period)

Member of Bio strategic meeting of Chiba prefecture(2nd)

2011 Resigned Executive Nihon pharmaceutical company

2011: Founded LET United Inc CEO

- Technical adviser On-Wave Inc
- Partner PRIME Inc
- Associate Director EuroJapan Marketing
- Coordinator Japan Bioindustry Association

* LET United is a consulting company in the field of pharmaceutical business.
It is focusing on transfer of techniques and seeds between Japan and outside countries.